PIANO LESSONS in NYC

Gabriela Fahnenstiel

Lessons

Each student can schedule a 30, 45 or 60-minute lesson per week. In-studio, in-home, as well as online lessons are available. Lessons are offered in English, German and Russian.

Tuition

Tuition may be paid monthly, quarterly, or per semester according to the student's needs.

Consultation

Before enrolling, an interview with the teacher may be scheduled at no charge.

Cancellation Policy

The teacher requires at least 24-hour notice of any scheduling conflict which results in cancellation. Lessons which have been canceled sufficiently in advance will be made up at the teacher's discretion. If the teacher is unable to attend a lesson a makeup time will be offered.

Biography

Gabriela Fahnenstiel began piano lessons at the age of seven. Her formative piano training was with the esteemed pedagogue Viera Fischer in Munich, Germany. She holds degrees in Piano Performance from the University of Music in Basel, Switzerland where she studied with Prof. Adrian Oetiker and from the Manhattan School of Music where she studied with Dr. Lisa Yui and Prof. Solomon Mikowsky.

As a consummate chamber musician she has appeared in concert with renowned ensembles and soloists like the Calidore String Quartet and the violinist Julia Fischer. Furthermore she also played recitals throughout Germany, Switzerland, Slovakia, Mexico and the United States.

In the summer of 2020, Gabriela founded the Virtuosi Virtual Summer Academy (VVSA) to connect a group of forty diverse and talented young musicians from around the world for a series of online lessons, masterclasses and lectures with top performing artists.

Gabriela Fahnenstiel also serves as artistic director of the international concert series "Mary Codman Classics" in Laufenburg, Germany.

Teaching Philosophy

Gabriela Fahnenstiel has established a flourishing studio including students of all ages and levels during her decade-long career as a piano teacher. Experiential learning, where positive emotions and the cultivation of intrinsic motivation encourage and propel a student's progress, is at the core of her teaching philosophy. Through guided self-assessment, students will learn in an environment where they feel comfortable to explore and ask questions. A positive and creative atmosphere is fostered allowing piano playing to be fun and rewarding.

Studio Class

Studio class will be held at least once a year. Each student will have the opportunity to play. The class is designed to provide a supportive environment where students can hone their performance skills and engage with classmates.
